The general committee appointed from local organization held a meeting in the Council Chamber on Thursday evening, January 30th, to discuss plans for a reception and memorial to the Narberth boys who offered their lives and their services to their country in the great war.

While various plans were suggested, no definite action was taken, it being the general opinion that definite plans and suggestion be put in writing to be presented at the next meeting to be held in the same place on Thursday evening, February 27th. Actual cost of plans to be presented if at all possible.

The Treasurer reported that $983.45 had been collected in the "Thank Boxes," with quite a few yet to be heard from.

The general committee will welcome ideas or suggestions from anyone interested, either through the committee representing the organization with which they are connected, or a letter addressed directly to the committee, P. O. Box No. 919.

Narberth's Class in Main Line Bowling

Makes Clean Score in Match With Autocar, Beginning Second Half of Season.

The last half of the Main Line Bowling League began last week, the Narberth Club being the only club to establish a clean record in the opening matches when they made a clean sweep of the games against Autocar Club on the home alleys.

Ardmore Y. M. C. A., league champions and winners of the first half, journeyed to Paoli Men's Club and captured the odd game in a spirited contest, gaining the verdict by a slim margin of seven pins. "Bill" Morgan, of baseball fame, was the chief knight by toppling the maples with a total of 559.

The rival teams at Wayne also bowled in good form with the Radnor Fire Company quintet, gaining the victory over Wayne Men's Club, Trout and Shuster "holding" the team up while Kimes carried individual honors in this match with a total of 543 pins.

NEEDLEWORK GUILD MEETS.

The Narberth Branch of the Needlework Guild of America met at the home of Mrs. A. P. Redifer on Thursday afternoon, the 30th ult. They spent a most enjoyable afternoon sewing on garments for the French refugees. Tea was served.

There is much work to be done by the local branch, as the Needlework Guild of America has promised to provide the refugees and inhabitants of St. Quentin, France, with garments and household linen.

Narberth, as is always her custom, will do as much of this work as possible, and the Directors of the local Guild will meet every two weeks, until further notice, to sew for these needy ones. We ask all members of the Guild who have contributed so loyally in the past to meet with us. Come with your sewing bag to the home of Mrs. W. J. Peebles, 109 Iona avenue, on Tuesday, February 11th, at 2 o'clock. We know you will enjoy helping in this work.

St. Quentin is a town of about 50,000. Before the War it was a manufacturing town—woolen mills and a beet sugar industry. The town has a particular interest for all Americans, as Quentin Roosevelt was a direct descendant of Isaac Quentin, a French Huguenot, who left Quentin and settled in New Rochelle, N. Y.

Remember the date and place of the next meeting, and be with us.

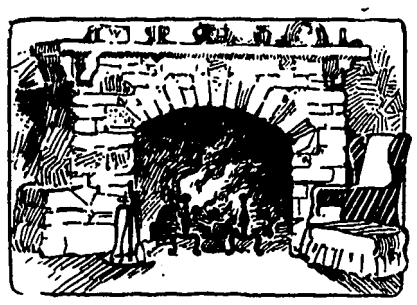

HELD ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Main Line Citizens' Association was held last Wednesday evening in Roberts Hall, Haverford College. Mrs. Frederick W. Rockwell was among the speakers.

A CARD.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Roser wish to take this opportunity of thanking their many friends of Narberth for their kind words of sympathy expressed in their sad bereavement.

Better than money because they earn money. Buy a War Stamp to-day.

THE FIRESIDE

Mr. William E. Fallon has moved into No. 315 Conway avenue.

Mr. B. F. Ridgway and family are new neighbors at No. 2 Narbrook Park.

Mr. John L. Webb has moved into our town, having taken the house at No. 245 Hampden avenue.

Taxpayers of Narberth should not fail to read the two very important ordinances advertised in our January 25th issue.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Hubbell are new residents of our town. They have taken the property at No. 317 Grayling avenue.

The young ladies of the Semper Fidelis Bible Class were entertained last Thursday evening at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Van Ness.

Mr. L. C. O'Niell has recently moved in to No. 25 Montgomery avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Rust have come to Narberth to make their home and are occupying No. 203 Essex avenue.

Don't forget that Vesper service in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday at 4 P. M. Organ recital for the first fifteen minutes. Singing by the new Church Quartette.

The new tenor singer, Mr. McLoughlin, of the Presbyterian Church Quartette will sing Dr. Chapman's beautiful hymn, "One Day," next Sunday morning. Come and hear him.

By a recent order from the War Department, General Pershing may send home on furlough or discharge men who can clearly demonstrate that distress exists in their family sufficient for such action.

The regular monthly meeting of the Narberth Suffrage Association will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Community Room the second Friday in February (February 14). Mrs. William Ward, Jr., Suffrage Leader for Delaware County, Pa., will be the speaker.

A brief patriotic exercise will be held in the High School Auditorium on February 12th to commemorate the birth of Lincoln. The exercises will begin at 8.45 and close at 9.30. The public is cordially invited. Regular class work will continue throughout the day.

A good Narberthite writes us as follows: "Our good friend and neighbor, Jacob K. Lissey, of 120 Woodside avenue, reached the 70th mile stone on January 31, and his many friends in Narberth are pleased to note what a fine young man he still seems to be. Here's wishing him many more years of his kind of active usefulness."

With a corking good novel to begin with and William Farnum in the star part, "The Rider of the Purple Sage," Zane Grey's story of life among the Mormons many years ago, lends itself admirably to a delightful screen entertainment. There should be an extra purpose in beguiling the public to the Palace Theatre, Ardmore, on Wednesday, when "The Rider of the Purple Sage" will be shown. The splendid entertainment they will derive from William Farnum's treat will be an incentive to a "come back" on March 8th, when the companion picture, "The Rainbow Trail," will be shown.

Let Us Have "Peace Trees"

We have lived through the world's greatest war. We have been privileged to see it end; we stand upon the threshold of a new peace. And because the war was the greatest, and the most terrible in all history, the peace that is to succeed it must necessarily become the greatest, most glorious peace time that ever come upon earth. Wherefore, rightly enough, we yearn to celebrate it, to pay tribute to it, to mark it upon our memories and into the course of our daily lives in a manner fitting, worthy, and adequate. But how?

What note would we have such a tribute strike? What thought, what sentiment should it convey?

The dominating idea should comprise the antithesis of all the horrors and trials and penalties of war. It should strike the note of reconstruction, of upbuilding, rather than of destruction; of beauty rather than of sordid ugliness; of peaceful calm rather than of turmoil; of service and helpfulness. All these without the element of tragic sacrifice. It should, in brief, be the symbol, not of death, but of life—of vigorius, everlasting growth.

Why not, then, the "peace tree," or rather millions of peace trees—one for every individual or family that has had its heart in the winning of the war and that now has its heart no less sincerely in the prosecution of peace? Let us plant trees, no matter what kind, nor need we be over precise as to where—the exact place doesn't matter a rap—trees that will stand and grow and become constantly more beautiful as a tribute to the coming of peace, as a symbol of the upward growth of the world and of humanity to bring about which we are prepared to lend our utmost aid.

Our armies now in the invaded, desolated sections of Belgium and France, and our Y. M. C. A., and Red Cross, and other workers are toiling to rebuild those countries, to re-establish their industries and their agriculture, to beautify again their homes and countrysides, that the scars of battle may be hidden and forgotten. Our country has been spared that destruction and desolation, but always it can be made more beautiful. Why not let this era of reconstruction in Europe be paralleled by a campaign of home beautification over here? It will mean something, a good deal, in fact, to the men as they return with vivid recollections of all they have seen and heard waiting to be blotted out by sights and sounds of peace and beauty. The men who have seen the gardens of England and France will be glad to see a new birth of garden beauty in their home land.

We plan to decorate our cities and towns with flags and banners and plaster arches costing thousands of dollars. And after a while the flags will be taken down, the banners, if spared by wind and weather will be removed, and the plaster sculpture will be broken up and carted away. Why not, instead of some of this, or, if you like, in addition to it, bedeck our surroundings in foliage and flowers, and plant trees and shrubs, vines and hardy plants? Year after year they will remain beautiful, imposing, useful. Year after year they will continue to grow, symbolizing the spread of peace and the democratic justice upon which it is founded. Year after year they will refresh our memories—not of the horrors through which the world has passed, but of the reward that has come to it, of the new priceless amalgam that has come forth out of the flames of trial and adversity.

The planting of "memorial trees," as suggested by the American Forestry Association, and other agencies for soldiers and sailors whose lives have been taken as hostages of peace does not go far enough. Rather should every family who had a relative or close friend in any way connected with the war's activities, plant its own peace tree, getting the returned son or brother or father or friend to help at the planting ceremony, if possible. If an Elm, Oak, Hickory, or other ornamental, its shade can

EDITORIAL

There have been many suggestions made in these columns for a proper and lasting memorial for the Narberth boys who have given their services to their country.

The Civic Association through its officers and directors feels that Narberth needs an assembly and recreation hall, and that this would be a proper memorial to our boys.

This is similar to the memorial which will probably be worked out for the city of Philadelphia and will provide gymnasium, swimming pool, reading room, smoking and rest rooms, committee rooms, trophy room and auditorium.

This would furnish not only a place for recreation for our soldier boys, but would provide for what Narberth has needed for a long time—proper rooms in which all organizations can hold meetings, a large auditorium where lectures, motion pictures, musicales, amateur theatricals, dances, flower shows and exhibitions can be held.

For recreation purposes there should be in addition to the swimming pool and gymnasium, bowling alleys, pool and billiard tables, etc.

Such a building would not only improve the character of the entertainments which Narberth may have, but will also largely assist in the mental, moral and physical betterment of the community.

Narberth has in the past worked out some of the biggest achievements along the Main Line, including the Historical Pageant of 1913, the Narbrook Park Improvement and the Patriotic Fete of 1918, and should be the first to line up with Governor Sproul in his idea of proper and lasting memorials which shall be useful as well as beautiful and shall be far away from shafts, tomb stones and kindred so-called memorials.

The Civic Association will welcome any suggestions on this plan.

MONTHLY WEATHER SUMMARY OF NARBERTH.

JANUARY, 1919.

Atmospheric pressure (inches and hundredths):

Average 30.11
Highest (on 12th)..... 30.75
Lowest (on 24th)..... 29.57

Temperature.

Average 35.3
Highest (on 2nd)..... 60
Lowest (on 12th)..... 9

Greatest daily range, 26 degrees (on 13th and 16th).

Least daily range, 6 degrees (on 3rd).

Precipitation.

Total for month.....4.02 inches
Greatest in 24 hours (on 1st-2nd) 1.72 inch

Number of days with 32 degrees or below, 23.

With precipitation .01 of an inch or more, 11.

Clear, 9; cloudy, 8; part cloudy, 14.

Lunar halo on 7th and 11th.

Prevailing wind, southwest.

The mild weather that was prevalent through December continued to the 9th, when there was a moderately cold spell up to the 14th. This was followed by a reaction to the milder conditions that continued to the end of the month. Light snow fell on 6th and 8th, the total fall for the month being only ¾ of an inch. Dense fog prevailed on 22nd and 23rd, which disappeared with the heavy rain that set in on the night of the latter date. There were no severe storms, the depression of the barometer being of no consequence.

While the month was one of the most genial Januarys in years, Alaska experienced temperatures as low as 62 below zero.

Cub's Weekly Letter

To the Editor of Our Town:

Certain people have doubted that the Narberth Home Guard was really a fighting organization, believing that its functions were more or less of a social nature. As a matter of fact, the signing of the armistice brought disappointment to no body of men in greater measure than to our local warriors. Captain Hartley's boys were living in hope that sooner or later the War Department would recognize the fact that in Narberth there was a well trained military company ready and eager for the call to the colors. The call was delayed—"polities," says Capt. Hartley—but the boys were patient and while waiting they were preparing themselves in the arts of war to an extent little dreamed of by the average citizen of the Borough. To such a degree of excellence had this preparation brought them and so anxious were the Guards to show the world their unequaled brand of military efficiency, that the news of the ending of the war carried consternation into the camp at Elm Hall. Someone carried a keg of cider into the Armory also, and most of it was spilled all over the floor, to the disgust of the janitor. Emulating the example of the Blue Devils of France the Guard had adopted a name for itself which it expected to launch on an innocent public when the call to arms came. The name was, "Brown Tigers of Narberth."

"Now what's to be done?" asked Fire Eater Lt. Jess Harris. "Here we're prepared to fight and the scrap's all over." Someone suggested that the Guard be disbanded. Just then, Corporal Newborg spoke up. "What's that?" said this blood-thirsty non-com., "after spending $12.00 for this uniform and $2.50 for this gun" (vintage of 1861. "Away with him!" And the poor fellow who made the suggestion was chucked down stairs, making such a racket that the proceedings of the Forum were seriously interrupted. Well, the discussion raged for some hours, and while no authentic news as to the ultimate decision has yet reached a waiting world, some keen observers hint that the Guard has concluded not to waste its fighting education, but to utilize it in some way, even if the fighting is confined to its own ranks. It looks as though there were something in that, too, when you think of the prevailing craze for conservation. What further lends color to this view are the shades of red and black that sundry Guardsmen have been wearing on their noses and eyes, especially just after the sounding of taps on recent drill nights. The other evening someone hung a black eye on a very prominent local politician, who by the way is a leading member of Squad No. 4, and several of the Guardsmen have presented rather damaged facial aspects after leaving the Armory, causing a stranger who happened to be in our midst last Thursday night to remark: "Looks as though this was a real old-fashioned sporting town."

Many a man who would like to buy an auto is deterred because of his lack of knowledge of things mechanical. It's a joy to sit at the wheel and cover mile after mile at an average of 25 or so, while everything's running smoothly, but what takes the joy out of life, especially for the man who doesn't know a hammer from a monkey-wrench, is to have the engine go dead about 40 miles from home, no garage in sight and no idea in the world of what the dickens ails the thing. Ask the Count—he knows.

What suggests the subject is a story I recently heard of one of our good old fellow townsmen, who after much hesitation decided to buy a machine. After taking three lessons in driving, he thought he was a sufficiently good chauffeur to take his family for a short trip. They had been out about 15 minutes when his wife became nervous at the speed the car was making and cried out: "Sam, stop the car. I want to get out." Sam's astonishing rejoinder was: "If I could stop the blame thing, I'd get out myself."

The Fire Department dues have not been reduced as yet, August, and I doubt that they will be. Everybody who has paid $3.00 a year in the past feels that he has been getting mighty cheap protection, and only a piker will expect a reduction. Bill Cummer says that if the dues are reduced to $1.50, the membership will increase several hundred percent. Bill must be a pessimist, or at least have a poor opinion of his fellow Narberthians. However, you and I quite agree that anybody who desires membership in the Fire Company will just as gladly pay $3.00 as $1.50, and when we two are of the same mind, for goodness sake what chance has Cummer against us? He's an active member anyway and needn't worry about dues; therefore, I say, with your permission say I, "Bill, button your lip." That's tough on Bill, but he ought to be satisfied to leave the dues as they are, because he's one of those who saves $3.00, whereas if they are reduced he saves less, and that would never do, because we want to see Bill get along now that he's getting old and bald.

Due to Our Town's progressive spirit and, of course, to some slight assistance rendered by Ed. Haws, Narberth now has a really first-class post office. The service is fine,—especially so for a Democratic administration. Before we can pronounce it perfect, however, some improvement should be made in the accommodations for getting Sunday's not-going mail away from town before 8.30 Monday morning.

CUB.

HIGH SCHOOL BASKETBALL.

A word must be said as to the wonderful success of the Narberth High School Basketball Team. The local boys lost the first game by a score of 34 to 21, to the Haverford College Freshman Team. The second game proved more successful, Narberth trimming the Provident A. C. by a score of 38 to 6. The third game was won by a score of 53 to 38, from Jenkintown High. The fourth game marked the third straight victory, Narberth taking out vengeance on the Haverford Fresh and winning by the close score of 25 to 24. The next team to fall before the local boys was Abington, Narberth winning by a score of 44 to 22. Narberth again triumphed when Darby fell victim to the cleverness of the local boys, the score being 37 to 35. Our boys surprised some people by defeating Lower Merion by a score of 26 to 16. And last Saturday Narberth again triumphed, beating the Narberth All Stars by a score of 30 to 22. This made the seventh straight game.

Narberth has scored 274 points against their opponents' 198, an average of 24.25 points per game against 24.75.

Of Narberth's 274 points, Captain John Dickie has scored 208, or an average of 26 per game, more than all the points of Narberth's opponents. Ernie Jenkins scored 30; Bob Ward, 26; Ed Nolan, 6, and Tom Martin, 4. John Dickie has made 100 foul goals out of 148, a percentage of 67.

The boys should be backed up by all the people of the town in the remaining seven games, four of which are at home. The home games are as follows:

February 21, Radnor at Narberth (night); March 7, Darby at Narberth (afternoon); March 14, Downingtown at Narberth (night); March 21, Hatboro at Narberth (night).

NOT UNDERSTOOD.

By Thos. W. Bracken.

Not Understood: We move along asunder,
Our paths grow wider as the seasons creep
Along the years; we marvel and we wonder
Why life is life, and then we fall asleep,
Not understood.

Not Understood: We gather false impressions
And hug them tightly as the years go by,
'Till virtues often seem to be transgressions,
And thus men rise and fall, and live and die,
Not understood.

Not understood: Poor souls with stunted vision
Oft' measure giants by their narrow gauge;
The poisoned shaft of falsehood and derision
Are often launched against those who move the age,
Not understood.

Not Understood: The secret springs of action
Which lie beneath the surface there below
Are disregarded; and with self-satisfaction
We judge our neighbors, and they often go
Not understood.

Not Understood: How trifles often change us,
The thoughtless silence, or the fancied slight,
Testing long years of friendship and estrange us,
And in our souls there falls a freezing blight.
Not understood.

Not Understood: How many hearts are aching,
Oh, day by day, how many, day by day,
Cheerless and lonely hearts are ever breaking,
Oh, how many noble spirits pass away
Not understood.

Oh God, that man might see a little clearer,
Or judge less harshly what he cannot see;
Oh God, that men might draw a little nearer
To one another, then be nearer Thee
And understood.

ALL SAINTS' P. E. CHURCH.

Rev. Andrew S. Burke, Rector.

The services at All Saints' P. E. Church, Montgomery and Wynnewood avenues, for next Sunday are as follows:

8.00 A. M.—Holy Communion.
9.45 A. M.—Sunday School.
11.00 A. M.—Morning prayer and sermon.

Any Episcopalians who have not affiliated with any other Church are requested to deposit their letter at All Saints.'

The Rector will be very glad to call upon strangers or any new comers in this vicinity.

The winter work of the Sunday School is progressing nicely, and it is urged that parents see that their children attend regularly.

Try and follow the Brotherhood of Saint Andrew plan and make an effort each week to bring some person to Church or Sunday School. If we all would do this All Saints' would have to be enlarged to twice the present capacity.

The Church 'bus leaves Narberth and Wynnewood Stations at 10.40 on Sunday mornings.

ST. MARGARET'S CHURCH

Rev. R. F. Cowley, Rector

Services Sunday:

9.45 A. M.—Bible School. Classes for all. Everybody welcome.

11 A. M.—Morning worship.

7 P. M.—B. Y. P. U.

7.45 P. M.—Evening worship.

Church Notes.

Rev. T. O. Stewart, D. D., Executive Secretary of the Baptist Union of Philadelphia and Vicinity, will be present Sunday morning with two of his coworkers. Miss Lillia Turner will tell of work done among Roumanian people of Philadelphia, and Miss Edith Haynes will speak about Polish work. Because of these extra speakers the usual children's sermon will be postponed until next Sunday morning.

The B. Y. P. U. subject Sunday evening will be, "I Will" and "What Will I?" Hebrews 10: 5-9 and 19-25. The pastor will assist in the meeting by giving an object lesson on the subject.

In the absence of the pastor last Sunday evening, Rev. C. A. McAlpine preached a very acceptable and helpful sermon. The pastor expects to preach Sunday night on the subject, "Heaven's Open Door."

Miss Mary Super, a member of this church, was expected to sail from New York on Saturday the 8th, bound for Constantinople to engage in Red Cross work. Let our prayers follow her for a safe journey and in due time a safe return. Write to her at Notel Nassau, 56 East Fifty-ninth street, New York.

THE NARBERTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Rev. John Van Ness, Minister.

Meetings for next Sunday:

9.30 A. M.—Men's Bible Class. Dr. H. A. Banks, teacher.

10 A. M.—Sunday School. A place and a welcome for all. Five Bible classes.

11 A. M.—Public worship. Final sermon on Dr. Chapman's great hymn, "One Day;" subject, "One Day He's Coming, Oh Glorious Day."

4 P. M.—Vesper service. Organ recital and special music for the first fifteen minutes. Sermon theme, "Nothing But Leaves."

7 P. M.—Christian Endeavor meeting. The Senior Section will be led by Philip Knutzen and the Junior Section by Helen Faile and Elizabeth Smith. There were 70 present at the joint meeting last Sunday evening.

Church Notes.

The first of a series of Vesper services was held in this church last Sunday with an attendance of over 100. The musical numbers were especially enjoyed and this feature will be continued in the future.

The sermons on Dr. Chapman's beautiful hymn are attracting much attention. The hymn will be sung again by our new tenor singer next Sunday. There were 215 present last Sunday morning.

This church will co-operate with the others in the Union Thanksgiving Meeting to be held in the Baptist Church next Wednesday evening in recognition of the ratification of the Prohibition Amendment.

The personnel of our Church Quartette is now definitely settled. The voices are well balanced and their work last Sunday, under the efficient direction of Mrs. T. O. Lane, the organist, was greatly appreciated. The quartette will sing each Sunday at 11 A. M. and 4 P. M. meetings.

NARBERTH HIGH WINS SEVENTH STRAIGHT GAME.

Last Saturday evening, Narberth High School won its seventh straight game, defeating the Narberth All Stars. The score was 30 to 22.

This is quite a boost for the High School, as the members of the opposing team are all stars.

The game was close throughout.

The line-up:

High School.		All Stars.

ASSOCIATION OFFERS FACILITIES TO HOME-COMING SERVICE MEN.

Complimentary Membership and Special Club Room Privileges.

The Board of Directors passed a resolution last Monday evening approving the report of the Red Triangle Committee and granting their several requests. This committee asked that all enlisted men, upon returning home, be invited to accept a complimentary membership ticket in our local Y. M. C. A. Another request was that one room be set aside at least one evening each week to be used as a club room by these men.

Mr. Charles V. Noel and his Red Triangle Committee associates will have charge of this department.

After a budget of expenses for carrying on this special work is approved by the State Secretary, a Director will be appointed by the Red Triangle Committee, whose duties shall be to give several hours a week to this service, all expenses to be paid from that part of the National War Work Council's funds which has been appropriated to Pennsylvania for helping the soldier and sailor boys to become readjusted to civilian life.

The local Red Triangle Committee will supervise all of this work.

WHAT OF THOSE PICTURES?

Many have no doubt noticed the display of photographs of Narberth's enlisted men and wondered why so many are not shown. The temporary display is in a window generously offered by the Imperial Grocery Company. After a reasonable length of time, the Red Triangle Committee hopes to place these pictures in a permanent case. They will gladly include any additional pictures turned in at the Y. M. C. A. or Imperial Store.

Better Half, Better Votes.

"I told Henrietta that I was proud to see her vote just like a man," said Mr. Meekton.

"Did that please her?"

"No. The choice of phrase was unfortunate. She said that if she couldn't use better judgment than a man there would have been no need of her troubling about the vote in the first place."—Sketch.

How It Happened.

Once a year the newsboys of a certain district of London are taken for an outing up the Thames by a gentleman of the neighborhood, when they can bathe to their hearts' content.

As one little boy was getting into the water a friend observed, "I say, Bill, ain't yer dirty!"

"Yes," replied Bill. "I missed the train last year."—Tit-Bits.

SAVE

your old newspapers until the last Saturday of each month. The Ladies' Auxiliary is planning to collect and sell this otherwise wasted material as one means to cover the Y. M. C. A. coal bill which it has so ably met in the past. Have your bundle of newspapers neatly tied on that day, ready for call.

SCHEDULE OF REGULAR GYM CLASSES.

Have You Paid Your Subscription to "OUR TOWN?"

Walter Roser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Roser, 128 Conway avenue, Narberth, died suddenly on the sidewalk of his aunt's home, a few doors from his home on Monday evening. Lillian Banfield, seven years old, a cousin of the boy, found him lying on the pavement in front of her home just before dinner. "Oh, mother, Walter is out here lying on the sidewalk, and he looks so white," the child cried. Mrs. Banfield hurried from the house and carried Walter to his home. Dr. R. C. Hoffman was summoned.

render welcome service for generations to come. If an apple or pear, or other fruit, it will sustain and refresh season after season. Even if merely a bush—a "service shrub" as it were—it will gladden the eye and brighten the days of all beholders while always it stands for the peace for which men fought and bled and died.

Nor is this plan, primarily one of aesthetics and sentiment devoid of inevitable material results. Assume that we have four million men in our armed forces, and suppose that the families of half of them are so located that they have a back yard or a vacant lot if not a real lawn or an open field in which to plant their peace tree. That would mean two million or more trees added to the resources, the fundamental wealth and beauty of the nation.

Again there is the effect on our bird population, as emphasized by Mr. T. Gilbert Pearson, of the American Association of Audubon Societies, in connection with the memorial tree idea. Far less of our birds, he says, go South in winter than is commonly supposed, and to those that remain North, trees are a matter of life and death. Reduce their numbers and our feathered friends and allies are deprived of shelter and sanctuary; increase them, and the birds thrive and multiply and serve us well in our eternal warfare against the insect pests of flower, fruit, and food plants.

Trees along our highways will add to their attractiveness and kindle a new community pride in those who live amongst and beneath them.

Trees on the hillsides will save our soil from destructive erosion, our low lands from disastrous floods, our wells and springs from serious shortages in times of need.

Trees in the garden and about the home will enrich the soul and lend new interest and color to life.

"Let there be peace" indeed. And let us commemorate its advent by planting more of God's own trees in God's own country, and ours.

Plant "peace trees" this spring.—The Garden Magazine.

PLANT A TREE

For the Boys Who Have Enlisted from Narberth.

The Civic Association has arranged a plan whereby a tree can be planted for each boy in the service. If you want a tree for a particular boy, get in touch with H. R. Hillegas, Chairman of the Garden Committee, who will give you full particulars.

Try a ton of our

Highland Buckwheat Coal at $7.50 per ton carried in. This low price will only last until our bin is cleaned out. The coal can be mixed with other sizes and thus bring about a reduction of your heating bill.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsman, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
